President's Corner

What a fabulous luncheon!! Another huge success!! Thanks to Ann and Peg for all the planning and all the work they did to make it a success. Thanks to the committee for all the work and support. Thanks to the following: the members for coming and bringing family and friends and for bringing so many raffle items; Sandy for all the signs; Amanda for being in charge of the mask contest; John for the info on Mardi Gras and the King Cake; Becky for organizing the raffle; Marie for running the special raffle and the Silent Auction; Marina and BJ for selling the raffle tickets; Kathy for gathering all the raffle items before we started; all our raffle runners; and to all those who returned the heads for the cure. Big thanks to everyone who helped. I hope I didn't forget anyone.

What is coming up? September we have our annual Art Show. Please bring things to put in the show. October, Peg will be teaching and I will be teaching a fun piece in November. Speaking of November, we will be having elections. So, when Fran calls be prepared to say YES.

As I mentioned at the luncheon our Chapter received the SDP Chapter Award.

No meeting in August. Going to HOOT and hope to see many of you there. Remember, next year is HOOT's last convention. It will be July 14-18, 2019.

Until I see all of you in September, happy painting.

Lorraine

FROM THE EDITORS' DESK

Hi All

Here it is August and the NCC has had a successful seminar with Lydia Steeves , a great Mardi Gras Luncheon and several fun paint Ins.

In September we will once again have the Art Show, please get ready to bring in your beautiful works, nothing over 18 months please. The entrance form is also located in this newsletter. It is always helpful to have it filled out in advance.

I noted that Fran was already busy working on members for 2019 slate of offices. Think about helping your club. Several committees will need someone or two persons to chair them, the jobs are never difficult just a bit time consuming. Remember you also have helping hands.

For those heading to HOOT may you have safe travel and a fun filled week.

Regards. Marie and John
