LUNCHEON

Save the date July 18 2020

It will be a day full of fun. There will be prizes, raffles and much more. More information will follow in the next newsletter.

Hope to see you all at the Holiday Inn Dulles Airport in July.

Peg

Community Service

Happy 2020 everyone. This year we have decided to do a different project supporting our community. As discussed at the meeting we will be collecting purses/bags and small toiletries to place in them. These will be donated to a local women’s shelter. For the painted item we will coordinate a paint-in or meeting day to paint a compact mirror, eye glass case or small cosmetic bag to place in the handbag. We will notify the membership when this has been scheduled. Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions.

Thank you

Amanda Davis

President's Corner

Another great meeting. I was so glad to see some of our new members attending. Glad to see Myrna Manolis back and thanks for volunteering to audit the Treasurer's books. We also welcome back Irene Deychakiwsky. Thanks to John for teaching the color pencil owl class. He said he was watching TV and an owl was on the screen so he paused the picture and took a picture of it and then made a pattern. Always learn something new. Thanks to Ann Davis for agreeing to be the Chapter's Vice President.

What is coming up. February 22 (the fourth Saturday) Kathy Bacskey will be teaching Battenburg Lace on eggs or a piece of your choice. March, Sandy Scales is teaching, April, NO PAINT IN, May is our Art Show after the meeting. While the Art Show is being tabulated we will eat lunch and visit with one another. So, bring the pieces you have painted in the last 18 months. See the newsletter for all the info. June, Kay Brown will be teaching a watercolor piece. July is our annual luncheon. The theme this year is Wine Country. We need members to volunteer to help paint items for the luncheon. The more we have it takes the burden off a few. Contact Peg Altemus if you can help. So many good things coming up, so read the newsletter for more information. John said he is putting out the Chapter directory in March, so if you have any changes get them to John by March 1. The budget was presented and approved for this year. Amanda and Ann presented a few ideas for Community Service. More info at the March meeting.

I filled out the SDP Chapter Award paperwork and sent it to SDP. We met the requirements, so we will get our award. We also also received a patch for becoming an SDP Crown Chapter for 2018. We received this because we sent a donation to the SDP Foundation.

Please read the newsletter to keep up with what is going on. Until I see you, happy painting.

Lorraine

Vice President Report

Thank you for allowing me to be your Vice President for this year and if there is anything I can help you with please contact me at ah.davis@verizon.net.

For March we will be doing a class with Sandy Scales after our meeting. Please see the signup sheet and what you need to bring with you for the class in this newsletter. For May we will have our art show. Please bring one or more of your paintings to enter in the show. Also we will not be doing a class on that day but we are hoping you will bring a bag lunch and visit, share information and have fun while the art show committee tallies to votes. As always water, coffee and tea will be provided.

Start planning now for our luncheon in July at the Holiday Inn, Sterling. See the information and theme in the newsletter.

Remember if there is anything I can do for you or answer any questions please contact me.

Ann Davis

Nation's Capital Chapter
General Membership
Minutes of the Meeting
Saturday, January 25, 2020

PRESIDENT: Lorraine Lasch welcomed attendees and called the meeting to order at 9:30 AM, in the Providence Community Center. A quorum was present. Lorraine announced that at the executive board meeting, Ann Davis agreed to be vice president for NCC this year. Lorraine also announced that NCC received a chapter badge for the SDP Crown Program.

VICE PRESIDENT: Ann Davis listed upcoming events. Sandy Scales will host a "Repurpose" class for March 21st to repurpose an item of your choosing that needs a refresh. There is no paint-in in April, the May meeting will focus on the Annual NCC Art Show, and the annual luncheon will be held in July. Ann asks that members let her know of their interest in teaching.

REPRESENTATIVE: Ann Gibbons said Kathy Bacskay will teach a "Battenburg Lace" project on February 22 and hopes Kay Brown will teach in June.

MINUTES: The minutes of the November meetings stand as printed in the NCC newsletter.

TREASURER: Kathy Bacskay announced a balance of $9,986.39, with $40 still to deposit. Kathy presented the budget for 2020. Myrna Manolis volunteered to audit the books.

MEMBERSHIP: Sandy Scales reported that NCC has 37 paid members to date.

NEWSLETTER: John KirzI requested submissions by the first of February. John also reminded members of the annual update to the membership directory and asked for changes and additions.

HISTORIAN: No report.

FOUNDER'S MEDALLION: No report.

LUNCHEON: Peg Altemus and Ann Davis have planned a "Wine Country" theme for NCC Luncheon 2020. The first committee meeting is scheduled for February 8, at 10 AM in the arts and crafts room at the Providence Community Center. If you can paint for the luncheon, but cannot make the February 8 meeting, Peg and Ann will bring items for you to paint to the February 22 paint-in for distribution.

SUNSHINE: Betsy Thomas fell and is still recovering. Ann Davis has her mailing address and personal phone number in the rehabilitation hospital to share with members so they can wish Betsy well. Fran Schmitt is doing better after her fall and illness and is out and about "with caution".

WAYS 'N MEANS: Peg Altemus is selling raffle tickets and will start calling winner names after adjournment.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Amanda Davis spoke of suggestions for upcoming projects. There are still heads to paint available, just let she or Ann know of your interest.

WEBMASTER: BJ Gray gave a brief update on the website.

NEW BUSINESS: Kathy Bacskay presented and reviewed budgets 2019 and 2020.

MOTION: Ann Gibbons moved that Budget 2020 be accepted. Ann Davis seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

OLD BUSINESS: No report.

ADJOURNMENT: The meeting adjourned at 10:10 AM for the raffle and John KirzI's owl pencil project.

Respectfully submitted,
Rebecca Benton, Secretary

NCC Paint-in - February 22, 2020

Date: Saturday February 22

Time 9AM - 1PM

Where: Providence Community Center

What: Battenburg Lace, designed by Frony Ritter

From “Eggs for All Seasons”

Teacher Kathy Bacskay

Surface - Surfaces of your choice

We will paint at least 2 in class, probably 3.

Small Goose Egg, 4 1/4” tall,

Bear With Us, item 0959, $5.00

Egg Cutout with Bow, 3 1/4” tall,

Bear with Us, item 2944, $1.50.

4 1/2” paper mache egg, but I’m not sure it would be smooth enough.

Cupboard Distributing (cdwood) Item 27-0041.

I don’t recommend enlarging the designs too much, or they won’t look like stitched cloth.

Brushes

You’ll need brushes for small details and line work.

I used a #1 round, a 5/0 script liner and a 5/0 short liner.

Bring a small flat (#4 or #6) to base the dark areas and optionally a 1/4” angle for shading.

I used a #3 round to base the dark area of the blue egg.

Bring - Tracings, white & grey graphite paper, large & small styluses, palette knife, usual supplies.

All paints listed are DecoArt.

Do the usual prep for your chosen surfaces, then basecoat using a large brush. The color should be opaque (2 coats or 3).

The base colors are indicated by an asterisk (*).

If you don’t have a particular color, a close color will do.

After the base coats are dry, trace the patterns onto the surfaces. Don’t trace the cross-hatching lines on, but do trace everything else. For the comma strokes I put a line down the center and a small arc where the stroke’s head will be. For the very thin crescents, I put a single line down the center.

That’s it, no other prep needed!

See you in class! Kathy Bacskay

General Meeting Project March 21, 2020

Date: Saturday, March 21, 2020

Time: 9:00 AM

Location: Providence Community Center

Teacher: Sandy Scales

Project: Update or Re-Purpose a surface using Altered Art (see photo samples of Betty Caithness table and small Zebra stripe box). Everyone's piece will be totally different.

Fee: None

Bring the following:

- Small furniture piece (table, wood spindle, stool, tray, old sewing box, mirror frames, old metal fan, old book, etc.). We have a limited amount of time, so make sure your piece is a small one.
- Sandpaper.... Fine and coarse.....depending on condition of your surface.
- Any stencils you'd like to useZebra stripes or other. If you don't have a Zebra stencil, I'll show you how easy it is to draw and paint these.
- 2 inch masking tape that I used on the lid of the small box with Zebra stripes.... See photo example).
- Good paint brushes (a variety of rounds, liners, and flats for floating).
- Old flat cheap brushes (1 - 2 inch) for applying wallpaper paste used for adhering the papers, wallpaper borders, etc. I am providing the wall paper paste for all.
- Normal painting supplies (scissors, x-acto knife, water basin, stylus, graphite, paper towels, waxed palette, etc.)
- Wrapping paper (thicker rather than thinner) or wallpaper to use on a table top or elsewhere. Most paint stores that supply wallpaper will have wallpaper books with numerous samples inside for customers to look through for ordering wallpaper; we all have used them at one time or another; however, once the books have expired, they throw them away or give them away. These samples are great to use on tabletops or other surfaces. You can call your local Benjamin-Moore or Sherwin-Williams or other paint stores to see if they are holding any books for trash or giveaway. I'll bring my wallpaper books to class to share.
- Bring any paint colors to include gold/silver/copper or gold leaf & adhesive that will accent the colors in your wrapping paper or wallpaper that you have chosen.

If you have any questions about your surface, papers or wallpaper choices, or anything else, please don't hesitate to give Sandy a call at 703-622-9716 or email her at sandian@comcast.net.

NCC Rep Report

Thanks to John for teaching us the colored pencil OWL in January.

In February Kathy Bacskay has a lovely Battenburg lace design painted on eggs or another surface of your choice. In time to have them ready for the Easter baskets.

April we will not be having a paint-in as members will be attending Sail away with the Chesapeake painters.

June planning on a watercolor painting class. More info to follow about this.

We still have a few openings later in the year for which we need teachers. Please call or e-mail Ann Davis or me if you are willing to teach a project

Ann Gibbons.

Art Show

For our newer members, I'd like to explain the Art Show, which will be held at the May meeting. Each member is encouraged to bring in & display their best artwork that was completed between January 2019 and May 2020. It must be your own work; therefore, if a teacher helped by painting on it, that painting isn't eligible.

There are 8 categories:

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------|
| (1) Animals, | (5) Landscapes and seascapes, |
| (2) Floral, | (6) People and Portraits, |
| (3) Folk Art, | (7) Seasonal, |
| (4) Rosemaling / stroke work /Zhostovo, | (8) Still life. |

You may enter one artwork in each category, but realistically, most people enter only 2 or 3 categories. There'll be a form in the April/May newsletter that you fill out indicating the category, medium (watercolor, acrylic, etc.), and your experience level in that medium (beginner, intermediate, advanced). At the meeting, there will be volunteers checking in the artworks and giving each a number. Everyone attending will vote on their favorites in each category and a "Best in Show". It's lots of fun, and I look forward to seeing everyone's work.

Kathy Bacskay

Sunshine

Please keep Betsy Thomas in your prayers and thoughts. She is back in the hospital after the rehab person was a little aggressive with getting her in bed one night and several more parts of her hip were broken. She had new surgery on Friday January 31st and is doing well. Please send cards to her home address as I'm not sure when she is leaving the hospital.

Please keep Lucy Jo Wirth in your prayers and thoughts, she has had some surgery and is in rehab and doing well. If you'd like to send her a card I'm sure she would love it

FROM THE EDITORS’ DESK

A big thanks to each of you that painted the owl with me at the January meeting. It was so nice to see the fine work that all of you did. I am always amazed how everyone can work on the same piece and they all turn out so different and yet are great pieces. I hope you enjoyed the session as much as I did and now have a finished project.

All

Please check this publication to see all that is already in the works for this year. You will be asked for your help on committees, as well as painting skills. Say yes and be available.

Check your closet and ask friends if they have purses to give away see Amanda’s note Pg 1.

Marie & John
