President's Corner

First, I want to apologize to the Chapter for the confusion on where we were meeting. Ann Davis is the contact person for the Community Center, since I do not live in Fairfax County. Ann found out on Thursday before our meeting that the Center was closed on the Saturday of our meeting. Ann tried the Hermitage and they were not as responsive as I would have liked, so we had the meeting at my house. Again, sorry for the confusion. Ann also found out that the Center is closed on the Saturday of our February Paint-in, so we will be meeting at the Hermitage in the Penthouse. I know many of you do not check your emails very often, but you should as things change.

I want to Congratulate Ann Gibbons on receiving the Founders Medallion Award for 2016. Thanks Ann for all you do for our Chapter.

BIG THANKS go to Mary Steingesser for teaching the Laurie Speltz project. Mary came a long way to teach this to us. I think everyone had a great time.

It was a very relaxing afternoon.

At the meeting, many members volunteered to teach either a paint-in or an after meeting program.

Coming up, Ann Davis will teach a quick wood frog on a wine glass in February, Lucy Jo Wirth will be teaching a Lighthouse landscape on a mini canvas in March, in April Bobbie Draves will be teaching a piece on a glass block, I will be teaching a Christmas Tree design in May after the Art Show. Sandy Scales and John Kirzl also volunteered to teach.

So, we are on a roll. Please read your newsletter for great things to come.

July is our Luncheon and it is in Maryland this year. The theme is "Winter Wonderland". It will be a fun time for all.

Until we see each other, Happy Painting.

Lorraine

Founders' Medallion

Congratulations to Ann Gibbons
2016 Founder's Medallion Winner

This year's recipient of the Founder's Medallion has been a member of NCC since 2010.

Since the moment she joined she has been an active member. She has served on many committees including luncheon and community service. She has helped with setup and takedown with the art show, and also helps with the nominating committee and historian. This year she co-chaired the luncheon.

Ann has been our representative for 2 years so she is always out there getting people to come and join in the activities.

She has been a great asset to our Board.

We will also use email and a phone tree(if we still have power) to notify members

NCC Rep Report

We started 2017 in full swing thanks to Lorraine hosting our January meeting when our meeting space became unavailable on short notice. Mary taught us a cute Laurie Speltz design “Welcome Spring”.

In February Ann Davis will be teaching Ferguson Frog. The cost of $10 includes everything. Ann does recommend that we bring hand sanitizer as we will be working on a wine glass.

Lucy Jo Wirth will be teaching a landscape on a 3x4 canvas in March followed by Bobbie Draves teaching a Gingerbread Bear on a glass block. Lorraine will teach a winter scene in May. It’s great lineup and more to come. Just a reminder that a $5.00 check is required to register for the paint-in’s, refundable upon attendance.

Recipe

Kathy Denneler’s Crock Pot Chicken with Rice

This recipe is for a full crock pot. I would just cut in half for a regular servings.

1 cup uncooked rice
 6 chicken tenders of 2 chicken breast
 1 small can of mushrooms drained
 2 jars of pasta sauce (I used roaster garlic)
 1 cup of grated parmesan cheese
 1 1/2 cups of mozzarella cheese
 2 cups of grape tomatoes halved

cook the rice until tender cut up the chicken into bite sized pieces, in large skillet sauté in olive oil (season with garlic and onion powder, salt and pepper) combine all with the chicken (cook on low/med heat until heated thoroughly.
 If making a small version put in baking dish, put additional mozzarella on top.
 Place in oven (350 degrees) until the cheese has melted.

Location: Providence Community Center

Time: 10:00am

Register: A $5.00 check made payable to NCC of SDP to reserve a space in class is required. Refundable upon attendance

IMPORTANT: I will need to order the patterns and distribute them to you at the March meeting, so please register as soon as possible.

Thanks.

Class Fee: $10.00 includes pattern packet, gesso, and DecoArt Frost Gloss Enamel (green), if painting on a glass block (Though Renee used the Frost Gloss Enamel, I think you could use regular Decoart Gloss Enamel in your color choice)

Surface: Your choice/you provide: 8" by 8" glass block (Hobby Lobby has them ½ price every few weeks) or another surface. You may paint on any surface you have that fits the pattern as all paints used are Decoart acrylic.

Paints: ( Not Provided) Decoart Acrylic: Avocado, Black Plum, Bright Salmon*, Burnt Orange, Burnt Sienna, Buttermilk, Camel, Cocoa, Colonial Blue*, Country Red, Deep Midnight Blue, Hauser Dark Green, Honey Brown, Lamp Black, Light Buttermilk, Milk Chocolate, Olive Green, Orange Twist, Royal Purple, Sand, Titanium White, Wild Orchid. (* - new 2016 colors, I will share mine if you don't have them, plus I will bring a set of paint to share – bring what you have and do not go out and buy the other colors)

Prep: For a glass block you will need to apply the Frost Gloss Enamel to the block, let it dry, then trace the pattern. The gingerbread man needs to be solidly basecoated with gesso...this takes a while because it needs to dry thoroughly between coats; I did at least 4 coats of gesso. For other surfaces, you will need to pick a background color and basecoat your surface, then trace the pattern...no gesso required. I will provide further instructions when I distribute the patterns.

Lights: I have a few sets of battery operated lights for inserting into the glass blocks. I will sell them for about $10 a set.

Bring: Regular painting supplies and lunch.

CONTACT: Bobbie Draves at 301-540-7613 or email bdraves@verizon.net to register.

Project: The Christmas Tree By Kathi Phalon

Location: Providence Community Center

Time: 10:00am

Cost: NONE

Piece: YOUR CHOICE

Supplies: Regular Painting Supplies

Paints: (Not provided) DELTA: Burnt Umber; Hammered Iron; Ivory; Black, Hippo Gray; White; Lichen Gray; Timberline. If you want to use American I have given you a paint conversion below

I did my piece on a 5-1/2 inch lid.. The brown in the picture is my kitchen table. In the book, it shows that there is blue in the sky and on the snow, but there is not any blue in this piece. If you want blue in your piece, I would probably use Americana Blue Grey Mist as that is in the conversion for one of the colors. Please make this piece your own. Enlarge the pattern or make it smaller, whatever you want.

PREP: Base your piece with Ivory. When dry do a wash with Hippo Gray plus a tad of Ivory over the entire piece. When dry transfer design to your piece, using a light touch. Pattern is on following page.

FROM THE EDITORS' DESK

We are being led kicking and screaming into the 21st century. As you may have noticed, our primary means of communication are shifting from telephone and newsletter to email, the web, and possibly (perish the thought) Facebook. It is therefore imperative that members check their email accounts frequently, especially as events and meeting dates are approaching.

As you will have noticed we have had a change in venue for the February paint in to the Hermitage Penthouse.

Most of the slate for paint-ins and general meetings are set. Thank you Ann Gibbons for being so efficient, and to those who have volunteered.

If winter seems long, bring the sun in with fun painting and smiles from friends. Hopping to see all of you soon.

Regards,

Marie & John.

Anyone who ever gave you confidence, you owe them a lot. Holly Golightly
